Background History

Business, Travel, Consumer, Investigations – garnished with News and a pinch of the Nation's Morals – all ingredients in Karen's CV to date.

Business and Consumer issues are to the fore in her current programming:

BBC News 24: Business News presenter, a live studio look at the business news of the day. Fastrack (BBC 2 and BBC World): a weekly travel show, combining location review with consumer law and the trials and tribulations that beset modern travellers:

Both programmes employ Karen's talent and specialist knowledge to make the issues understandable, informative and entertaining

Working as the BBC 1 News' Consumer Correspondent, Karen conceived and presented an undercover mini-series exposing Rogue Traders, while reporting and presenting for Weekend Watchdog.

In 2004 Karen exposed issues of concern for consumers of Northern Ireland with a weekly factual entertainment show – Fairplay (BBC N.I)

Away from consumer issues, Karen conceived and produced a one-off special to test the nations morals for The Heaven & Earth Show – (BBC 1) a programme for which she also wrote and directed.

Karen has; produced and presented investigative films for Newsnight, got her boots muddy reporting for Carlton Country and, as a roving reporter, toured the UK with a satellite truck presenting live OBs and Entertainment stories for BBC 1 Breakfast.

Her studio news work has included live coverage of the Omagh bomb for Sky News and the death of Mother Teresa for CNN.

Equally at home with a live audience or in front of the camera, Karen's corporate album includes: Swiss Re – hosted panel discussion. Eversheds, Litigation Group Conference –Roving reporter.

Airshow TV – which she has presented at International Airshows (Farnborough, Paris & Dubai), Gala Bingo, Safeway Pizzas and Powertrikes.
